Swallows' Tale from South Africa

Blended in Robertson, S Africa by our wine merchant, Anthony Tindal, born and reared on the Atlantic Coast in Donegal, and named in honour of Hirundo Rustica, that valiant breed of migrating bird which arrives in Ireland in April, rears at least two clutches of young during our summer, then migrates to South Africa for a well earned holiday – a dream many of us have and few fulfil. The Swallows' Tale grapes are sourced from vineyards where no artificial pesticides or fertilisers are used
